CLINTON, N. C., JUNE 13, 1889.

EDUCATION OF WOMEN.

It is a hopeful feature of the woman's rights question that the proper education of girls and women—on a basis as broad and comprehensive as that offered to boys and men—is receiving more and more attention, and the subject of the ballot by common consent seems to be less generally discussed. Education is the first requisite—and an education that will fit the woman for life and its practical duties. The time has passed for regarding a woman as unsexing herself if she become a bread winner. The natural course of events forces a large number to work for their livelihood; and it is recognized at last that women's education is faulty which aims at the fresco of accomplishments without the solid oak of attainments. The new fields opening for women's work signify not new links for the olden slavery, but new crowns for the olden diadem, new opportunities for human betterment, and new opportunities for human happiness.—Jewish Messenger.

The Invalid's Hope.
 Many seemingly incurable cases of blood poison, catarrh, and rheumatism have been cured by B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm), made by the Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga. Write to them for book filled with convincing proof.
 G. W. B. Balder, living seven miles from Athens, Ga., writes: "For several years, I suffered with running ulcers, which doctors treated and pronounced incurable. A single bottle of B. B. B. did me more good than all the doctors. I kept on using it and every ulcer healed. I. C. Kinnard, of South Towanda, Pa., writes: "We induced a neighbor to try B. B. B. for catarrh, which he thought incurable, as it had resisted all treatment. It delighted him, and continuing its use he was cured sound and well."
 R. M. Lawson, East Point, Ga., writes: "My wife had scrofula 15 years. She lost her hair and her skin broke out fearfully. Debility, emaciation, and no appetite followed. After physicians and numerous advertised medicines failed, I tried B. B. B., and her recovery was rapid and complete."
 Oliver Secor, Baltimore, Md., writes: "I suffered from weak back and rheumatism. B. B. B. has proven to be the only medicine that gave me relief."

How Like a Child.—A little five year old daughter of Dr. Pickens Taylor, of Georgia, was taken down with a spell of intermittent fever. It became necessary to administer quinine, which he did in the form of small capsules. In order to induce her to take them he told that they were "little humming birds' eggs," and were very nice. When the quinine had taken effect, she told her father with great glee, that the little birds had hatched and were singing in her head.

Scrofula is a form of blood poison which descends from parent to child; sometimes it omits one generation to appear in the next. It is a taint which must be eradicated from the system before a cure can be made. Swift's Specific drives out the virus through pores of the skin, and thus relieves the blood of the poison. Mercury and potash mixtures dry up the sores of scrofula and other blood diseases, only to bottle up the poison in the system which of course is certain to break out at some weak spot, as the throat, nasal organs and lungs.

Judging from what I have seen, I regard Swift's Specific the king patent medicine of the day. I know several persons who have been permanently cured of serious cases of blood poison by its use after prolonged and unsuccessful use of various other remedies.

Sweet Simplicity.—"You must have been leaning up against the banisters, Angey, dear, affectionately remarked the fair girl's grandmother as she brought her spectacles to a correct focus and took another look at the stains on the waist of Angey's dress. "Them ain't no banister stains, returned the truthful maiden, who ran a little boys' bible class in the parish church. "Charley was feeding me caramels last night and I guess them's the prints of his fingers."

CONSUMPTION SURELY CURED.
 To the Editor:—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy free to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post office address. Respectfully,
 T. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 181 Pearl St., New York.

Questions of importance by a four-year old: "How do they get our souls out of our bodies when we die,—cut 'em out?" "Why don't we see the yellow envelopes the telegraphs come in goin' long the telegraph wires?" "If the Bible calls bad old folks goats, bad children are kids, ain't they?" "Is it too late for me to have a twin brother?" "Any rate; me and Billy Green is twin cousins, ain't we?" "If you was me when you was a man, would you drive a hearse or join a circus?"

JAMES MEANS' $3 & $4 SHOES
 "Competition is the Life of Trade," and if you have not seen our latest improved goods you cannot imagine how lively trade is, or how hard our competitors have to work to keep within sight of us. Ask your retailer for the James Means' $3 shoe, or the James Means' $4 shoe according to your needs. Positively none genuine unless having our name and price stamped plainly on the sole. Your retailer will supply you with shoes so stamped if you insist upon his doing so; if you do not insist, some retailers will coax you into buying inferior shoes upon which they make a larger profit.
 Such has been the recent progress in our branch of industry that we are now able to affirm that the James Means' $4 shoe is in every respect equal to the shoes which only a few years ago were called at eight or ten dollars. If you will try on a pair you will be convinced that we do not exaggerate. Our are the original $3 and $4 shoes, and those who imitate our system of business are unable to compete with us in quality of factory products. In our lines we are the largest—
 Shoes from our celebrated factory are sold by wholesale and retail in all parts of the country. We will place them only within your reach in any State or Territory if you will.
